RESIGNS AS HEAD OF NEWLY FORMED UNION

Scott Easterday, Appointed at Last Meeting, Refuses to Act.

Scott Easterday, who was elected president of the newly formed union of woolen company employees, at a meeting held last week, resigned from that position at an open meeting of the members held in the Century theater Tuesday night. Notwithstanding that a strong effort was made to have Mr. Easterday reconsider his decision, the meeting at last refusing to consider it, that gentleman was obdurate, and the resignation was finally accepted. It was decided to postpone the naming of a successor to Mr. Easterday until the next meeting.

There was a fair attendance of members present. Matters of interest to the union were informally discussed, and a vote of thanks passed to Mr. Senger of the Century theater for the free use of the building for the meetings already held. A committee was named to secure permanent quarters. A number of new members were admitted.

HAVE NARROW ESCAPE WHEN CAR HITS AUTO

Machine Dashes Across Track and Gets Broadside Blow—Only One Injured.

Four occupants of a Ford car had a narrow escape from death Tuesday night when the machine was hit broadside by an eastbound south side car near the Miller sanitarium on Lincoln way E.

Mrs. Max Gross, 427 N. Michigan st., South Bend, was the most seriously hurt of the four, sustaining a bad cut on the head and face before she was thrown out of the car. Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Victor Freeman of South Bend, other occupants of the machine, escaped with a severe shaking up.

Moore was going west on Lincoln highway about 7:30 o'clock and in attempting to go out around several machines threw the car squarely into the path of the street car. The motorist was unable to slacken speed, being directly on top of the machine, and the force of the collision threw the light car to the side of the road. It did not overturn, which fact probably saved the life of the passengers.

Mrs. Gross was taken to St. Joseph hospital, Mishawaka, where several stitches were taken on her face. The rest of the party went to their homes.

The number of the car was 263, while the motorist was No. 53 and the conductor No. 78.

WIFE WON'T PROSECUTE SO CASE IS DISMISSED

Ralph L. Martin, arrested Tuesday morning charged with failure to support his wife, was released Tuesday afternoon when his wife, Mildred Martin, refused to prosecute the case.

Mrs. Martin, according to the husband, was given $55 before she left on a trip to Boston, a month ago. The understanding was that after the end of a month Mr. Martin was to send her $5 a week.

When she failed to receive any money, although the month is just up, she brought action, but experienced a change of heart and called the affair off.

WOMEN'S CONVENTION ELECTS ITS OFFICERS

Mrs. J. C. Hansen, South Bend Named President—Wednesday Big Program.

Mrs. J. C. Hansen of South Bend was elected president of the Women's Missionary convention at its meeting at the English Lutheran church Wednesday morning. Other officers elected were, Mrs. S. M. Smiley, Goshen, secretary; Mrs. Ella Eidson, Mishawaka, treasurer.

Election of officers was the principal event to come before the convention, the morning being spent in hearing reports of committees and remarks by delegates. Wednesday afternoon was the big day of the convention, several important papers on interesting subjects being read by the delegates. "Luther and Reformation" was the subject of an interesting lecture before the members of the northern conference in session at the English Lutheran church Tuesday night by Rev. G. F. Dittmar of Hicksville, O. The lecture was to have been illustrated by stereoscopic views but the slides failed to arrive Tuesday. Should they come Wednesday they will be shown at the meeting of the missionary convention.

Rev. Dittmar went into details in discussing the life of this great advocate and founder of innumerable churches, and associated his life with his work, showing how his manner of living had a great effect upon his religious work.

Rev. E. L. Lineberger gave an interesting talk on the eighth article of the "Ausbund Confession," which in substance is that an official of the church, while he should be a true believer, need not be his calling to the work proving that he is qualified to handle the duties and obligations of his position.

An interesting report of the recent home mission conference of the English Lutheran church, at Buffalo, was made by Rev. Dittmar, who was a delegate from the conference. Rev. J. C. Wesner discussed the idea of having a president of the synod who is not in charge of a church but can devote his entire time to work for the betterment of the churches. Along this same line Rev. C. S. Brewer led a discussion of ways and means of administering the work of the president of the synod if the old system now in vogue is retained.

PICTURE OF MERIT AT LINCOLN TODAY

"Mr. Grex of Monte Carlo," E. Phillips Oppenheim's thrilling novel of European complications, will be seen in photo-dramatic form at the Lincoln theater today, under the direction of the Jesse L. Lasky Co., with Theodore Roberts in the stellar role. This story is one of international merit in which three of Europe's greatest diplomats meet apparently by accident, and plan a new map of the world, with England and America excluded. The story has to do with the adventures of an impetuous young American millionaire in Monte Carlo and in love. It is a Paramount picture, and in the cast supporting Mr. Roberts are Carlyle Blackwell, Miss Dorothy Davenport, James Neill, Horace Carpenter, Frank Elliott and other members of the Lasky all-star organization.

BIG GAIN FOR CITY BUILDING THIS YEAR

List Compiled by Controller Shows Increase in Dwelling Houses.

Mishawaka has made rapid advances in the building line in the past four months of this year over the same time last year. A list compiled by City Controller Walter Michael shows that 54 permits were taken out since Jan. 1 this year, against 23 issued in 1915.

One hundred and thirteen thousand, eight hundred dollars is the total amount of the permits issued, while last year the total was $138,488, but included in this was the $100,000 permit for the building of the new addition to the Mishawaka Woolen Manufacturing Co. plant. The only big items in the list this year were for Clarke's laundry, Ranker's garage, and the $9,000 addition to the Rubber Regenerating plant.

The list shows that 21 new residences and four new store buildings are included, while the rest of the permits are for repair work. Only 20 new houses are included in the list for 1915.

SHIMRON BANQUET ELABORATE AFFAIR

The ninth annual banquet of the Shimron Bible class of the Methodist Memorial church, which was held in the social parlors of the church Tuesday evening, proved to be a joy-fest, with a grand variety of good things to eat. The tables were beautifully decorated with clusters of spring flowers. The ladies of the Aid society acquitted themselves with particular grace, not only in the preparation of the banquet but also in the way it was served. Following the elaborate repast, during which exquisite music was furnished by the Lincoln Highway orchestra, a program of unusual interest was enjoyed, as follows: "Hearts and Handstones," by H. W. Jones; vocal solo, "Summer Wind," Miss Eleanor Meeklenburg; "Heads and Hands," by Mrs. F. A. Partridge; selections by the Lincoln Highway quartet, E. G. Buchanan, F. A. Partridge, G. M. Reinhold and G. A. Maurer; "Hopes and Hallelujahs," Dr. L. M. Edwards; class songs. A. G. Long was toastmaster.

There were 150 present.

CITY CLEAN-UP DAYS WILL BE MAY 8-9-10

Mayor Gaylor in Proclamation Urges Cooperation From Citizens.

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION.

To the Citizens of Mishawaka: The time has come when we should again engage in our annual clean-up campaign. I bespeak the active cooperation of every citizen, all civic bodies and commercial organizations, the press and school children, to the end that Mishawaka may be cleaned up as never before in her history.

A criticism of the clean-up campaign program is that it is largely temporary in its results. There is much merit in this complaint and I would urge our citizens that, once having cleaned up their premises, to see to it that they are kept clean throughout the entire year. To this end I commend to our citizens a service which the city renders at a very nominal cost, and by which all ashes, rubbish and litter are removed from the premises as it accumulates and the clean-up campaign is thus extended throughout the year and permanent results secured.

A permit for this service can be obtained at the office of the city clerk and full information will be cheerfully given regarding same.

Therefore in the interest of a cleaner, healthier and more beautiful city, I hereby designate, as mayor of Mishawaka, May 8, 9 and 10 as clean-up days. Beginning not later than Monday, May 8th, and rake your yards, clean out your cellars and gather all tin cans, litter and rubbish of every nature and place it in convenient receptacles, or dump it in neat piles near the curb line of your property, and the city will provide teams and wagons to remove the same. It is understood, of course, that this does not include ashes, as citizens are expected to remove their own ash heaps as in the past.

RALPH W. GAYLOR, Mayor. Acting under the spur of the mayor's proclamation every citizen is expected to take an active part in cleaning up Mishawaka. Special attention should be given to unsightly rubbish and ash piles, dumping places and other nuisances which people are inclined to let slide during the winter.

Street Commissioner Doolittle and Health Officer Strubbe are hard at work planning clean-ups of the places under their jurisdiction and when the labels are completed Mishawaka should look as "neat as a pin."

PAPER HANGER GIVEN CHANCE TO MAKE GOOD

William Warner, arrested on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses was given 10 days in which to make good on the paper hanging jobs he had contracted and received money for or go to jail, in police court Wednesday morning. Several persons whom Warner had swindled were in court ready to testify against him but said they would drop the case if he made good on his promises. Warner's scheme was to collect advance money on jobs and then forget about them. He claimed that the reason he had failed to do two of the jobs was because his Chicago firm which supplied the paper was out of a certain style wanted. He did not order any paper preferring to wait and do the jobs at the same time.

Preliminary initiation of the new pledges of Miss Lyndell Martling, Miss Florence Fuller and Miss Henrietta Loutens was held at a called meeting of the Tri Kappa sorority at the home of Mrs. A. R. Klein, 401 W. Joseph st., Tuesday evening.

Ware of South Bend could not be secured, as Mrs. Ware was attending the thirteen congressional district meeting of the federated clubs to be held at Goshen Saturday.
